

TEASER PAGES

FROM THE CRYPTIC / ADULT HUNT.....

Which of 'his' nieces is here? (Remember where you are?)

Turn left and continue down the Kings Road.

Game birds at this upmarket grocer's?

Left into Royal Avenue

This man directed Julie Christie and Alan Bates in one of their most famous films in 1970 (The Go-Between). At which number Royal Avenue did he live?

Royal Avenue was a direct route for the royal household to get to the Royal Hospital from which palace?

Right into St Leonard's Terrace

A peculiar mix of golfing and fencing terms?

A stake-house. You want garlic with that?

Cross Smith St, then turn left into Tedworth Square and follow the square round to the right.

FROM THE EASY / FAMILY HUNT....

Which King built a manor house which stood here until 1753?

Cross busy Oakley St and turn right into Cheyne Row.

Five's gone – what number now?

Turn left into Upper Cheyne Row – explore this street, and then turning left into Lawrence Street, also.

Poetical works at number 22?

Not counting human figures, how many creatures (inc. birds) in total can you find on the front of the Cross Keys? Look carefully!

Could this famous English novelist possibly have been bullish in a China Shop? Clue: if you have found the correct answer to the previous question, you will know where to look).

Head back across Cheyne Row and turn left on to Oakley St

Oscar's mother lived here, but what was her pen name?