

TEASER PAGES

FROM THE CRYPTIC / ADULT HUNT.....

Charles Lutwidge Dodgson was born in the village of Daresbury in 1832. He is much better known by his pen-name of Lewis Carroll, the author of Alice in Wonderland. If you are able, visit the church and see the famous stained glass window depicting some of his characters.

1. Which 1990s pop group could sing in the church?
2. Translate the year written in roman numerals on the plaque on the court house.
3. It's a shoe-in: what date do you find at the sign of the boot?

FROM THE EASY / FAMILY HUNT....

The name LYMM is thought to be of Celtic origin and means a "place of running water". It may be derived from an ancient stream that ran through the village centre. The centre of the village is a designated conservation area, notable for its many historic buildings.

13. For what occasion was the cross restored ?
14. What town is Lymm twinned with?
15. What can you buy from Hopkinsons?
16. What was Lymm called in the Domesday book?